3. OTHER PERMITTED USES FOR DS OFFERINGS

All terms of the Agreement that are not modified according to this OST remain applicable.

For purposes of this Section 3, "Licensed Program" shall continue to have the meaning as set forth in the Agreement and the term "Anatomical Licensed Program" shall mean only the licensed program which is the subject of this OST.

USE FOR CERTAIN SERVICES. Customer is authorized to use the Anatomical Licensed Programs for added-value engineering or implementation services. Added-value engineering or implementation services are services to deliver to a third party end user any deliverable generated specifically for said third party end user from use by Customer of the Anatomical Licensed Programs. In any event, Customer may not use the Anatomical Licensed Programs (1) to develop similar programs or software code for (i) general distribution by any means, and whether alone or bundled or delivered with any product, data, information, software, or other element, or (ii) for any services that do not add value attributable to the intervention of specific human skills, such as, without limitation, in a data services operation or as an application service provider, or (2) to install and/or operate and/or give access to the Anatomical Licensed Programs on any hardware and/or software environment owned by or under control of any third party unless otherwise expressly authorized in the Agreement, or (3) to represent or imply to any party that it is an authorized or certified provider of services for DS. Customer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless DS against any claim, expense, judgment, damage or loss (including reasonable attorneys' fees) which arises out of or in any way relates to Customer's use of the Anatomical Licensed Programs with third party end users.

LICENSE AND USE RIGHTS: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Article "Grant" of the General Terms of the Agreement, DS grants Customer, from the Effective Date, a non-exclusive and non-transferable (except as expressly permitted in the General Terms of the Agreement) right, for the duration identified in the Transaction Document and solely for its internal business use, to (i) modify the databases provided within the Anatomical Licensed Programs and (ii) copy the Anatomical Licensed Programs.

Unless DS provides express written consent otherwise Customer (i) is only permitted to make modifications to databases provided within the Anatomical Licensed Program from within the graphical user interface of another Licensed Program which is necessary to run the Anatomical Licensed Program, or with a dedicated, stand-alone, text editor (for example Microsoft Word or Emacs) and (ii) shall use simulation results obtained from the Anatomical Licensed Program solely in combination with any other Licensed Programs, excluding any other software and open source, that is capable of creating a numerical or finite element based model, and (iii) shall not translate the Anatomical Licensed Programs into any other proprietary or commercial numerical or finite element based modeling or solution format.

Customer is expressly prohibited from distributing any text file, or any portion thereof, which is necessary to run the Anatomical Licensed Program.

OWNERSHIP: Customer shall retain title to all modifications made to the databases included within the Anatomical Licensed Program. Modifications may include, without limitation, the insertion by Customer of medical devices or additional or alternative material definitions into the Anatomical Licensed Program. Customer agrees that DS may create derivative works or enhance the Anatomical Licensed Program which may contain similar or identical modifications to those made to the Anatomical Licensed Program by Customer. In such a case, DS shall retain title to its own modifications or creations and Customer will not bring any claim against DS or any DS Group Company related to such derivative work or enhancement.

WARRANTY: DS does not warrant that the Anatomical Licensed Program will materially conform to its Documentation if Customer modifies the Anatomical Licensed Program in any way.
